Experiences and Coaching Supporting Your Transformation

Remember Love, you are a powerful co-creator, a magnificent spiritual being who has chosen to incarnate on Earth but there is so much more to you than your Earth beingness.

You came to Earth to experience things you can only experience while embodied here! And you came with an internal guidance system, your IGS and a team of playmates - angels, ascended masters, unseen guides and benevolent cosmic beings - waiting to partner with you to create your most delicious life.

And, Dear One. remember Earth is a planet of free will so you must ask these beautiful benevolent beings to play with you... to partner with you!

The time is now. Sweet One, each morning when you return from dreamtime, we invite you to call to your unseen team.
Say

“Good Morning”

and invite them to play with you, to partner with you throughout your day!

And I would love to part of your team too! email
